It has been a trying year for all of us. And with your employees working from home, it has been difficult to show them how much you appreciate all their hard work.

So why not treat them to something a little out of the ordinary with a trip back in time?

Our Mediaeval Banquets are a novel bonding experience that will bring your team together. Give them the chance to get out of the house, let their hair down and be treated like a Lord or Lady for the night at Coombe Abbey.

Set against the backdrop of historic Abbeygate, our delicious four-course feasts with live entertainment promise to be an evening you and your team won't soon forget.
